Tuition - Payment of Fees
Tuition is non-refundable once the session begins. The enrollment is a commitment for the full session. If registering with a credit or debit card you must do so online. You may bring or mail your payment and form to 171 Moody Music Building. Office payments must be cash or check (made out to: The University of Alabama). No payment plan is available during summer semester, tuition is payable in full at the time of registration. Payment of Fees: Failure to meet financial obligations of any kind to the University could subject the account to suspension of future services; referral of the delinquent account to a collection agency, and the assessment of additional late payment charges, transcript holds, attorney’s fees, and other cost and charges necessary for the collection of any amount not paid when due.

Refund & Withdrawal: Missed Classes or Lessons
Refunds and/or withdrawals are granted only in cases of non-refundable tuition. Requests for refund or withdrawal must be made directly to the CMS Office. If you are not satisfied with the service you received, please contact the program director for a refund or withdrawal. No credit, refunds, and or make-ups are given to students who miss scheduled classes or lessons. If a teacher misses a lesson/class or must cancel, the teacher is required to offer a make-up option.

Tardiness, Missing Books, Changing Classes or Teachers
Students who are late for a scheduled lesson or forget their lesson books cannot be guaranteed their full lesson length. Changing to a different lesson teacher is not an option once the session begins. Shifting to a different Kindermusik class is subject to availability and teacher approval.

 Unscheduled Closures & Emergency Operations Plan
Only if The University of Alabama closes due to inclement weather, will Community Music also be closed. Check area TV announcements or the UA website at www.ready.ua.edu for announcements, alerts, and notifications. If UA is open and you choose not to attend a lesson/class due to inclement weather, the teacher is not obligated to offer a make-up class. For ALL campus emergencies, UAPD is the primary point of contact. Off Campus Off-campus emergencies should be reported by dialing 911. UAPD should also be notified so they can assist where needed and ensure that UA’s reporting requirements are met. For emergencies: Call UAPD: (205) 348-5454 Off Campus: Dial 911 Emergency Operations Plan (EOP) The University of Alabama has a comprehensive emergency operations plan in place to deal with incidents that may occur on campus. The plan incorporates the U.S. Homeland Security’s National Incident Management System (NIMS) protocols and delegates the University Police as the initial responder. CMS-specific plan details are on a separate form upon request.

Scheduled Holidays & Breaks
As a program of The University of Alabama, Community Music follows the UA calendar. The holiday and scheduled breaks observed by UA/CMS do not necessarily follow the public or private school calendar. Please refer to the CMS calendar at www.cms.music.ua.edu for information on when the CMS is scheduled to be closed.

Code of Conduct
UA prohibits the use of alcohol, tobacco, and non-prescribed drugs. CMS participants are expected to be on their best behavior regarding language and interactions. Cell phones and other electronic devices should be on silent and out of hand during rehearsals, performances, and lessons.
THIS IS A RELEASE OF LIABILITY.

Participant knowingly and voluntarily waives, releases, exculpates, and discharges UA and any related third party entities or contractors from and against any and all Potential Liabilities connected with the Program. By signing this form, the Participant voluntarily agrees to discharge UA and any related third party entities or contractors in advance from all such Potential Liabilities. Indemnification The Participant agrees to hold harmless and indemnify UA from and against Potential Liabilities related to or arising from Participant’s involvement in the Program. Assumption of Risk The Participant understands and acknowledges that there are risks, including significant risks, inherent in all activities that can result in loss, damages, injury, or death, including, without limitation:

- Travel/traffic risks such as accidents, crashes, and risks from autos operated by UA or the Program as well as autos operated by other individuals or entities, poorly maintained roads, sidewalks, as well as criminal acts that can result in serious injury or death; Premises risks, including those that may be owned by others and risks from water, such as drowning; Injury risks from falls, collisions, or accidents (such as cuts, bruises, torn muscles, sprains, broken bones, concussion, etc.); Outdoor risks, such as weather, lightning, heat or cold, insect bites/stings, allergic reactions to plants, dehydration, hypothermia, drowning, sunburn, animals, and limited access to medical care; Risks from others involved in the Program such as transmitted illnesses or others’ actions; Health risks, such as allergic reactions, heart or respiratory events as well as other risks inherent in any strenuous activities, including things identified as “injury risks” herein; Equipment risks, including failure, misuse, inherent risks, and risks from UA or non-UA equipment; Other risks and hazards beyond the control of UA, including criminal acts that can result in serious injury or death.

The Participant acknowledges that they have had an opportunity to investigate the Program before executing this form and, knowing and understanding all risks associated with the Program, Participant nevertheless VOLUNTARILY AGREES TO ASSUME AND ACCEPT ALL RISKS that potentially accompany participation in the Program. Participant also agrees to take all reasonable steps to avoid any risks, injury, or death. Health Care and Emergencies UA does not accept responsibility or liability for providing health care services or health care insurance for Participant. Participant should consult their own medical care provider, and warrants their physical fitness to participate in the Program. Participant authorizes UA to obtain any necessary medical treatment for Participant during the Program. Participant agrees to be responsible for the payment of any fees and charges that may be imposed by any doctor or hospital facility in the provision of medical care to Participant. Further, Participant agrees to indemnify and hold UA harmless from any claim that may be made by a doctor of medical facility of said fees and charges incurred in the provision of medical care to Participant. The Participant is required to provide the name(s) and contact number(s) for a parent, guardian, or other party that is a reliable contact in the event of emergencies. Conduct Participant agrees, for the duration of the Program, to abide by all applicable federal, state, and local laws as well as the rules and regulations for the Program. Participant also agrees to follow posted signs as well as instructions and directions of University officials and Program directors and supervisory staff. Photography Participant acknowledges that photographs and possible videos may be taken and irrevocably and perpetually authorizes UA to broadcast these images. Participant releases and discharges UA from any potential claims related to the broadcast or use of their image, and any potential claims related to the work. Participant waives any right to inspect or approve the work or the broadcast of their image. This agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with applicable law. This is the entire agreement of the parties, and any changes must be in writing.

Definitions The following terms have the stated meaning when used in this document:

- Applicable Law – the laws of the State of Alabama, without regard to conflicts of law’s provisions. UA does not waive, but reserves, all immunities, including Article I, section 14, of the Alabama Constitution. Claims against the University must be made to the State Board of Adjustment. To the extent not barred by immunity, nor required to be filed before the Board of Adjustment, exclusive venue and jurisdiction of all disputes shall lie in the state and federal courts of Tuscaloosa County, Alabama.
- Broadcast – to use, reuse, broadcast, publish and/or copyright, in whole or in part, for advertising, promotion, publicity, trade, educational, commercial, merchandising, packaging, public relations and media purposes, in all media, worldwide without limitation, in perpetuity.
