PAYMENT OF FEES: Failure to meet financial obligations of any kind to the University could subject the account to suspension of future services; referral of the delinquent account to a collection agency; and the assessment of additional late payment charges, transcript holds, attorney’s fees, and other cost and charges necessary for the collection of any amount not paid when due.

Tuition is payable in two ways:
1) Full payment upon registration (check/cash at our office OR credit/debit card using the online form). Checks should be made out to:
The University of Alabama. (credit card = online only)
2) Deferment of payment (via check, cash, or credit/debit card). The first payment is made to CMS (check/check in office OR online with a credit/debit card): Remaining semester deferment payments go to the University of Alabama Office of Student Account Services (cash/check). Payment plan semester balances must be cleared by November 1 (fall) or April 1 (spring). A late charge is applied by Student Receivables if deferred balances are not cleared on time. Call Sara Kamalsky (348-8313) in Receivables if you have a question about a deferment bill.
